

FORWARD

The Barrington genealogy presented on the following pages was written by Thomas Townsend Barrington around 1935. The version given here was copied from a small hard-cover booklet, made by Thomas, into which were bound a set of ditto copies of the original typewritten manuscript.

Thomas Townsend Barrington was the son of Mark Barrington and Bethia Townsend. Mark had immigrated to America from Dublin, Ireland with his mother and siblings in 1838, arriving probably in Philadelphia, and as members of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers), were received on certificate at the Stroudsburg Monthly Meeting. Mark's father, Thomas, stayed behind in Ireland following the bankruptcy of the Cotton manufacturing business he had taken over from his father (also named Thomas), who had remained legally responsible for the company's debts and therefore had suffered the loss of the money he was to have lived on in his retirement. At any rate, the younger Thomas did not join the family in Pennsylvania until the death of his parents in 1828. The family then occupied a farm in upper Pennsylvania before moving to Knox Co., Ohio. It was there that Mark and Bethia met and married.

In 1854 Bethia passed away, followed by Mark in 1861, leaving young Thomas an orphan. Mark's brother (also named Thomas) had married Bethia's sister Elizabeth Townsend; subsequently the couple had moved to West Branch, IA (in 1854). The young Thomas T. soon joined his Aunt Elizabeth and Uncle Thomas Barrington in West Branch, and their children (his cousins), George and Ruth.

After Thomas T. reached adulthood, his Aunt and Uncle Barrington sold out in West Branch and purchased new farmland near Barclay, KS. However, the younger Thomas remained in West Branch. In 1910 he and his wife Sarah moved to Pasadena, CA, which remained home for the remainder of their lives. They had two children.

In 1934, Thomas finished an extensive genealogy of the descendants of his grandfather on his mother's side, Thomas Townsend of Knox Co., OH. The format of the Townsend genealogy is similar to that of the present manuscript, but there are stylistic differences suggesting that the Barrington genealogy may have been started first, although the final date entered (1935) occurred after the completion of the Townsend genealogy.

To create the present version, I retyped the original on the computer using Microsoft Word 2007. To retain the appearance of the original, I chose a mono-spaced font (Courier New), set the font size to 12-point, the line spacing to 1, and the paper size to 8.5 X 8.5 inches. These choices have allowed me to retain the original page numbering. The Word document was then resaved in pdf format.

A Caveat: There is quite a bit of information missing in the original (mainly dates), and some that is present is wrong. (For example, my great grandfather, Abijah Judson Abbott, is erroneously given the middle name "Jones." Another example: he spells his mother's name "Bethiah" in the body of the manuscript but "Bethia" in the Index; as far as I have been able to determine, the latter is correct.) Thus, you should check what you find here against other sources to assess accuracy. I made no attempt at corrections as I wished to preserve an accurate record of the original.
