

If you are standing between two mirrors, which are set at an angle of 60 degrees, as shown below, how many images (including the object – yourself) do you expect to see? Please draw cross(es) at the location where you expect to see images and write down your reasons.

